Agnieszka Kaczorowska – TV presenter, actress, dancer – World's Champion in Latin dance, founder of the dance school Danceworld by Agnieszka Kaczorowska-/-

Jantar water is water intended for sportsmen and is not a regular type of water with minerals. As a person who used to be a professional sportsman I know how important hydration and electrolyte (sodium potassium, chlorine) supplementation is after each training. The majority of water brands available for sale does not meet the basic quality standards and, consequently, instead of not helping they may be even harmful to us. It is important to know and be aware what components and what electrolytes good water should have, and how they influence our body and regeneration after sport.-/-

When we already know that, we need to find a brand which offers all of that. Jantar water has the proper content of sodium, potassium and chloride which ensures that our water-electrolyte balance, so important for physical effort, will be maintained. Jantar is alkaline water of extraordinary purity – this has been proved by the laboratory of AGH University of Science and Technology [Akademia Górniczo-Hutnicza w Krakowie]. Moreover, Jantar water contains microelements such as: iodine, selenium, zinc, strontium and lithium.-/-

It has been very important in my school and in my life to drink water of the highest level, adequate for active people and of highest quality. Jantar meets my expectations. The whole philosophy and mission of Jantar are very consistent with mine. What is more, Jantar Champion Sports Water is the only water that has been recommended by the Institute of Sport – National Research Institute [Instytu Sportu – Państwowy Instytu Badawczy] and the Polish Association of Sports Dietetics [Polskie Towarzystwo Dietetyki Sportowej] as water for professional sportsmen and amateurs of sport.-/-

We want to raise people's awareness so that they choose highest quality products and services instead of concentrating on the price only. A seemingly slightly higher price in fact leads to savings, namely better health, no injuries, good energy to act and to enjoy well-being. This is why I truly recommend Jantar water and invite you to come to my school Danceworld by Agnieszka Kaczorowska where Jantar as our partner is always available.-/-
